

aberration – MSS 1

ab – away, from, away from
err – to wander

Match the words with the appropriate definition. If you need help, replay the lesson.

- | | | |
|----------------------|-------|---|
| 1. absent | _____ | a. something that is not what you would expect |
| 2. err | _____ | b. a mistake |
| 3. absolve | _____ | c. inconsistent; not predictable |
| 4. error | _____ | d. to choose not to do something; to hold away from |
| 5. abstain | _____ | e. to be away from a place or event |
| 6. erratic | _____ | f. incorrect |
| 7. aberration | _____ | g. to make a mistake |
| 8. erroneous | _____ | h. to take away someone's guilt or responsibility |

aberration – MSS 2

ab – away, from, away from
err – to wander

Use these words in the sentences below. If you need help, replay the lesson.

absent
err

absolve
error

abstain
erratic

aberration
erroneous

1. I was not in school yesterday; I was _____.
2. His _____ driving made me very nervous.
3. His driving was not related to drinking or drugs as he does always _____ from both.
4. To _____, or make a mistake, is human.
5. The hospital made an _____ on her bill.
6. I had the _____ idea that you were going but you are not going!
7. The warm weather is an _____ of our typical subzero winter weather.
8. The teacher was willing to _____ the misbehavior of the students if they agreed to behave.

