

Name _____

Date _____

remorseful – MSS 1

Match words in Column 1 with definitions in Column 2.

Column 1

1. remorseful _____
2. nervous _____
3. dreadful _____
4. disgraceful _____
5. philanthropist _____
6. anthropology _____
7. urban legend _____
8. compliant _____
9. compromise _____
10. irksome _____
11. apartheid _____
12. eclectic _____
13. conformist _____
14. restrained _____
15. bucolic _____

Column 2

- A. a person who donates money for good causes
- B. an apocryphal story
- C. study of humans
- D. full of trouble
- E. racial segregation
- F. from various styles
- G. one who says or does what is expected
- H. yielding to others
- I. apologetic
- J. to hold back
- K. acting with stress
- L. settlement of differences
- M. causing fear
- N. related to the countryside
- O. shockingly unacceptable

Name _____

Date _____

remorseful – MSS 2

Complete these sentences using the following words:

remorseful	anthropology	apartheid
nervous	urban legend	conformist
dreadful	compliant	bucolic
disgraceful	compromise	eclectic
philanthropist	irksome	restrained

1. Nelson Mandela played an important role in ending _____ in South Africa.
2. Mosquito bites are _____ because they can cause a person to itch and scratch.
3. The _____ child followed every rule and never disagreed with her parents.
4. Not wanting to draw attention to her different opinion, Molly was _____ in voicing her disagreement at the meeting. She appeared to be a _____ by agreeing verbally with the others, but she really thought a _____, or working out an agreement, would be better.
5. The diver was _____ before the competition because she knew this event would qualify her for the Olympics.
6. The child felt _____ after he had a meltdown in the restaurant. His mother called his behavior _____.
7. The different kinds of furniture in the house showed the _____ tastes of the occupants.
8. An _____ is an apocryphal story.
9. Wouldn't it be _____ to experience poison ivy?
10. The _____ countryside was ruined when new factories were built on the grassy fields.
11. _____ is the study of human races, origins, societies, and cultures.
12. A _____ is someone who gives money to good causes.