Talk with a partner about these twins. Then write several sentences using at least two of the synonyms/antonyms to describe first Jose and then Ramon.

Jose and Ramon

The twins were very different. Jose acted as though he had never met a stranger. He enjoyed meeting new people, engaging in different activities, and putting himself into unusual situations. Some of Jose's friends thought that he did things that offended other people. The other twin Ramon was always reluctant to pursue new activities, new situations and preferred to be by himself.
