

eclectic – MSS 1

What kind of music do you like? Does it depend on your mood? Do you like different kinds – jazz, modern, contemporary, classical, rhythm and blues, hip-hop, reggae, Broadway show tunes, rap?

Well, if you like a wide variety, you have what is called eclectic taste in music. Many people have varying tastes in art, music, decorating and their philosophy about life.

Underline the synonyms of eclectic in each of the following sentences.

1. We chose a box of (assorted, plain) delicious chocolates.
2. The family decided to stay at an all (modest, inclusive) resort where there would be activities for everyone.
3. All the (varied, ordinary) fruit flavors made a delicious dessert.
4. The college students came from all over the world and had (identical, varied) and (similar, diverse) cultures and ideas.
5. She tried to be very (selective, comprehensive) when picking out the art work for her home.
6. The children had a (likeness, variety) of views about what their best day ever was.

